

The Georgetown Human Rights Forum

Presents a Commemoration of Peru's Missing Persons -
"If You Don't Find Me Here, Look For Me In Putis"

*

The families of over 14,000 Peruvians who disappeared in Peru's internal war are still awaiting news of their loved ones. Putis, in the Andean highlands, holds some answers. In May 2008, the Peruvian Forensic Anthropology Team (EPAF) exhumed the remains of 113 villagers who were killed at Putis in 1984. Meet the head of the EPAF team and understand the challenges of uncovering Peru's past.

Documentary, followed by a discussion with
Jose Pablo Baraybar, Executive Director, EPAF

November 13, 2008

7:00 pm - 8:30 pm

7th Floor Conference Room

Intercultural Center (ICC)

Georgetown University Campus

Photo exhibition by Domingo Giribaldi, Peruvian photojournalist

November 13 -15, 2008

Intercultural Center (ICC Galleria) 3rd floor

Georgetown University Campus

*

This event is jointly sponsored by the
The Georgetown Institute for the Study of International Migration (ISIM),
The Center for Latin American Studies,
The Latin American Graduate Organization and The Advocacy Project

RSVP to <http://www12.georgetown.edu/sfs/rsvp/index.cfm?Program=ISIM>

Contact Alex Gee (ISIM) for further information:

arg29@georgetown.edu or (202) 687-2258

