POLICY BRIEFING

The Challenge of Circular Migration: A Triple Win Solution?

Who

Jeroen Doomernik, Senior Fellow at the Transatlantic Academy, and Professor at the University of Amsterdam.

Michael Werz, Adjunct Professor at the BMW Center for German & European Studies, and Visiting Scholar of ISIM at Georgetown University.

The European Commission and others are actively debating policies for foreign workers that encourage circular migration. The policies intend to reduce irregular entries, as well as the number of long-term residents. Can they be a “triple win” for the workers, employers and countries of origin?

When

Friday, July 17, 2009
