POLICY BRIEFING

Circular Migration: Empirical Trends and Forward to Policy

When:

Friday, February 15, 2007
8 AM, Continental Breakfast
8:30 to 10:00 Program

Where:

Georgetown University Law Center
McDonough Hall, Room 437
600 New Jersey Ave., N.W.
Washington, DC, 20001

Agenda and Presenters

Temporary work programs are predicated on the theory that many foreign migrants will, at some point, return home. The natural tendency of migrants to engage in such circular mobility underpins that assumption. The experts at this Briefing will discuss empirical patterns of circular migration and the benefits it may have for both source and receiving nations.
