

Institute for the Study of International Migration
at
Georgetown University

POLICY BRIEFING

GUEST WORKERS & TEMPORARY WORK PROGRAMS: TENOR OF THE DEBATE AND WAYS FORWARD

When:

Friday, October 26, 2007
8 am, Continental Breakfast
8:30 to 10:00 Program

Where:

Georgetown University Law Center
McDonough Hall
600 New Jersey Ave., N.W.
Washington, DC, 20001
Room 437

Who:

Institute for the Study of International Migration (ISIM)
School of Foreign Service
Georgetown University
<http://isim.georgetown.edu/index.html>

Agenda

This Policy Briefing kicks off ISIM's three-year program, supported by the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation, examining the role of Temporary Worker Programs (TWPs). Bi-monthly Policy Briefings will address policy-relevant issues. The Briefings will be held conveniently at the G.U. Law Center on Friday mornings. The first Policy Briefing in this series will review the major lines of Congressional and public debate on Temporary Worker Programs for both skilled and lesser skilled workers, as well as ideas for future policy discussions.

Presenters

Welcome: T. Alexander Aleinikoff, Dean of the G.U. Law Center
Introduction to the Project: Susan Martin, Donald G. Herzberg Chair International Migration
Current and Proposed Policies: Andorra Bruno, Congressional Research Service

RSVP & Directions

Please RSVP to <http://www12.georgetown.edu/sfs/rsvp/index.cfm?Action=View&EventID=1354>

For questions, please contact Marwa Alkhairo, mwa6@georgetown.edu

For a link to directions: <http://www.law.georgetown.edu/directions/>

*The Law Center is located at 600 New Jersey Ave., N.W. (202-662-9000) on the Hill in Washington, D.C. within walking distance of Union Station, the metro redline, and is a 15 minute walk from the congressional buildings. It is not located on the undergraduate campus.