

In July 1995, the town of Srebrenica, a designated United Nations Safe Area, witnessed the mass execution of nearly eight thousand men and boys. On June 27, in commemoration of the tenth anniversary of the massacre, the Center for Eurasian, Russian and East European Studies (CERES) and the Institute for International Migration (ISIM) at Georgetown University, with the Heinrich Böll Foundation North America, invite you to a panel discussion entitled

SREBRENICA

Remembrance and Reconciliation

with

Iain Guest
Director, The Advocacy Project

Beba Hadzic
Director, BOSFAM

Fatima Ndangiza
Executive Secretary, National Unity and Reconciliation Commission of Rwanda

moderated by

Andrew Schoenholtz
Deputy Director, Institute for the Study of International Migration, Georgetown University

Monday, June 27, 2005 4:00 PM
Intercultural Center (ICC) Auditorium
Georgetown University

The panel discussion will be followed by an opening reception for “Srebrenica – Remembrance for the Future”
a photo exhibit commemorating the 10th Anniversary of the Srebrenica massacre with contributing photographer Darko Bandic in the Intercultural Center Galleria

RSVP required to guceres@georgetown.edu or 202.687.6080.
Please include name, title, affiliation, and email with RSVP.